SUPPLEMENT

- 25X1X
1. Within the past few weeks the Spanish Ambassador to Argentina, Jose Maria Areilza, has been giving special attention to visiting the most outstanding members of the Peronista Party and other intensely nationalistic Argentines. During these visits much discussion of the international situation has figured, and the Ambassador has spoken of the necessity for tightening the bonds between Spain and Argentina so that they may present a united front to the two "imperialisms."
 2. [REDACTED] has informed that Areilza had an hour-long interview with Foreign Minister Bramuglia before the latter left for the Rio Conference. Areilza is said to have declared the unconditional support of his country for the Argentine attitude toward international affairs as proclaimed by Peron.
 3. In addition to the visits of Areilza to important persons, it is learned that similar activities have also been a principal concern of Jose Ignacio Ramos, Chief of the Information Service of the Embassy and representative of the Falange in Argentina.
